Court Rules Against Granby Claim to Cassidy Land Titles

Judgment Involving Townsite Will Be Challenged
Before Privy Council; Case of Vital Importance to Future of Island Coal Land Holdings.

Vancouver, Aug. 24.—In giving judgment in favor of the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway Company of Vancouver Island in a very important settlers' rights suit entitled E. & N. Railway vs. Wilson and McKenzie, Mr. Justice Gregory finds that the Granby Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company loses its title to the property on which it built the fine town of Cassidy a few years ago. The Granby Company has an investment there of close on $1,500,000.

It is quite certain—the fact is even mentioned by His Lordship in giving his judgment—that the case will be carried finally to the Privy Council in London. The Granby people are carrying on mining operations at Cassidy, which is a prosperous and growing

MAY DELAY WORK ON NEW BRIDGE

City Cannot Agree to C.P.R.'s
Proposal Concerning Plans
It Was Stated To-day

Construction of the new Johnson Street bridge may be delayed further by the decision of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company on the bridge plans, as submitted to it by City Engineer F. M. Preston.

This became known at the City Hall late yesterday when Mr. Preston was informed by the Railway Company that it wished certain revisions of the bridge plans and, moreover, did not wish to approve the sub-structure plans until it had before it the complete plans of the other parts of the bridge as well. Mr. Preston cannot agree to this plan of procedure, as it probably would cause months of delay. Consequently, after consultation with Mayor Foster and Alderman George Sangster, chairman of the Streets Committee, he wired the C. P. R. and expressed his objections to the company's suggestions.

As the civic authorities were expecting to receive from the C. P. R. the plans for the bridge sub-structure with the company's proposals for or with slight revision, they were considerably taken aback by the company's attitude. It is pointed out that it will be some time before the plans for the bridge bascule will be ready, as it was planned to proceed first with the installation of the sub-structure. As a matter of fact, the bascule plans are being prepared in Chicago by the Strauss Bridge Company, of Chicago, which, it is understood, cannot complete them until the other plans are approved. If it were necessary to lay the entire plans for the bridge before the C. P. R. for approval, therefore, some months of delay might be caused.

Up to a late hour this afternoon the C. P. R. had not answered the city's telegram objecting to the company's proposal, so that the matter remains undecided. The civic authorities consider that the situation is serious, and they hope that an agreement with the company may be reached immediately, so that there may be no further delay. Even if the company were to approve the bridge plans to-morrow, they point out, the contract for the installation of the sub-structure—the first phase of the work—could not be let until October. Any further delay in the negotiations, therefore, would mean the postponement of installation until after that date.

Ward and Mrs. George Ward, reported to have perished in the bush fires which have laid waste the district around Methylville, are now said to be safe at Camper, Man., according to a report this morning over the long distance telephone from that town. After a long flight ahead of the flames, the three reached Camper, Man., in an exhausted condition, it is said.

Reports from the fire are optimistic, and it is hoped will be under control in a short time. Danger yet exists owing to the possibility of a sudden high wind, and until the last embers have been stamped out the organization of settlers will continue on the job.

STATE PROBLEMS TO MR. BALLANTYNE

Minister to Confer With Board of Trade; Deputation Here
From Cowichan

Matters of vital interest to Victoria and Vancouver Island will be discussed with Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, Federal Minister of Marine, at a private meeting of the Council of the Board of Trade this afternoon. All questions to be considered will be brought up quite informally, the idea being to have heart-to-heart talks with the Minister. Among other matters which probably will be broached is the shipbuilding question upon which the Minister has already stated his views in The Times, and it is likely that the present fishery regulations and the conditions of fishing in the Strait of Juan de Fuca will be brought to his attention.

This morning Mr. Ballantyne visited the Choberg and Harbor Marine shipyards, in which the Federal Government is interested. At the Harbor Marine yard he looked over the steel steamer which is being constructed for use in the Canadian Mercantile Marine and at the Choberg yard he inspected the wooden barquentine which the Victoria Shipowners, Ltd., are constructing for use in the lumber-carrying business. Mr. Ballantyne is particularly interested in these vessels as the Government is financing their construction by a loan of $700,000, which will be paid back out of the ships' earnings.

British Coal Miners Vote On Proposal to Strike

London, Aug. 24.—Members of the British Miners' Federation began to-day to ballot on the project of calling a strike to enforce their organization's demand for an advance in wages and a reduction of the price of coal. The voting will continue all this week and it will be some time later before the result definitely is known. It is forecasted by London newspapers, however, that the miners will vote overwhelmingly in favor of striking unless their demands are granted.

The Government so far has refused to consider the projected advance of wages and a reduction of coal prices amounting to $2.50 a ton, but belief is expressed that some way can be found to avert a tie-up of the country's mining industry.

REFUSE TROOPS USE OF CITY BUILDING

Aldermen of Verdun, Quebec,
Turn Down Machine Gun
Unit

Montreal, Aug. 24.—Militarism in Verdun, Quebec, has lost its flavor since the time when 4,000 of its young men went forth to war, if a decision of the majority of the City Council at last night's meeting is any criterion. Major G. S. Currie, of the Eighth Canadian Machine Gun Brigade, applied for the use of a fire station now in use.

The aldermen voted down the proposition. Alderman Bacon pointed out the hall was wanted for instructional purposes.

Machine Guns.
"Machine guns," queried Alderman Lanouette, "I understand that 4,000 young men went out of Verdun to fight against German militarism and now Verdun is asked to have it here—to have men taught to handle machine guns to shoot 600 bullets a minute so that in case of discord they could fire these bullets at their fathers. We have had enough of militarism not only here but all over the world. This military business is in the interests of the class who own things against the classes who produce."

Alderman Brennan objected to the remarks.

Mayor Leclair called the attention of the Council to the fact that war trophies were being distributed and Verdun had received none.

Mexican Bandits Seize Britishers and Americans

Mexico City, Aug. 23.—Pedro Zamora, a bandit chief, whose men carried off a number of captives, including several Britishers and Americans in Jalisco, is being closely pursued by Government troops, the War Department announced to-night.

It is possible the list of Americans who may kill his prisoners if he is completely released. They have been raising money with which to ransom the captives.

Prairie Wheat Estimated At 226,807,600 Bushels

Regina, Aug. 24.—Saskatchewan's wheat crop this year will total 122,496,400 bushels on a basis of thirteen bushels to the acre from 9,422,800 acres sown in wheat. Manitoba will have 41,016,000 from 2,563,500 acres, or sixteen bushels per acre. Alberta will have the highest average crop of wheat of the three provinces—63,295,200 bushels from 3,516,400 acres, an average of eighteen bushels to the acre.

These estimates were supplied by A. E. Whitmore, who for many years has made a close study of crop conditions in the prairie provinces and whose estimates for former years have been remarkably accurate.

Under Mr. Whitmore's estimate Saskatchewan gains three bushels to the acre over 1919, Manitoba gains one bushel to each acre under cultivation, and Alberta makes the biggest gain of all. Last year the yield for the western provinces was based on a production of six bushels to the acre. This year the estimate—and it is conservative according to Mr. Whitmore—is eighteen bushels to the acre, a jump of twelve for each bushel—more in the province of Alberta.

GOLD SENT FROM BRITAIN TO STATES

$6,664,189 Shipped To Republic During First Ten Days of August

Washington, Aug. 24.—Gold imports from Great Britain continued heavy during the first ten days of this month, figures made public last night by the Federal Reserve Board showing imports from that source of $6,664,189. France, the only other European nation to export gold to the United States, sent $678,705 in the same period.

Total imports of gold by the United States from all countries between August 1 and August 10 aggregated $8,071,845. Exports during the same time were $1,430,745.

Silver imports exceeded exports in the ten days covered by the figures. Imports amounted to $1,441,014, against exports of $854,882.

The adverse trade balances, however, are permitting European nations to take little of either gold or silver. Silver exports to Europe have been only $4,654,232 and gold exports only $266,510 since January 1, 1920.

BIG ORGANIZED OF ALLIED VETERANS

Ottawa, Aug. 24.—Steps apparently are being taken toward the coordination of returned soldier and sailor organizations, not only within Canada, but within the British Empire and the Allied nations.

Following the receipt at Great War Veterans' Association Dominion headquarters here of a communication from J. Harry Flynn proposing amalgamation of the Great War Veterans' Association and the Grand Army of the United Veterans in Canada, representations have been made by the officials of the American Legion, the United States organization of ex-service men, asking that Canada send representatives to their convention, to be held in Cleveland in September. The American Legion officials state that they have been notified that France will send delegations, and they are expecting representations from all the other Allied nations. Canada, it is expected, will send a strong delegation.

The programme also has been received of the Empire conference of returned soldiers and sailors, to be held in Cape Town, South Africa, in February, 1921. Field Marshal Lord Haig will attend, and it is hoped by the organizers of the conference to have the leading men of the British Dominions' army corps in attendance.

WINNIPEG DOCTOR IS ORDERED OUT OF MONTENEGRO

Winnipeg, Aug. 24.—Col. Frederick W. Burnham, who is reported to have been ordered out of Montenegro by the Serbian authorities, is a well known Winnipeg doctor, and it is believed that his wife is one of the four assistants reported to have been ordered to leave with him.

Colonel Burnham served in the Balkans at the outbreak of the war, spent the second year in charge of an ambulance train on the Western front, and the third in charge of a Serbian army hospital. He returned to Winnipeg in 1917 to appeal for aid for the people of Serbia and Montenegro, and through his efforts was started the Canadian War Hospital Fund Mission, which he returned to the Balkans to administer.

Colonel Burnham had been decorated by the Crown Prince of Serbia and the King of Montenegro. His letters for some time have described the condition of the people among whom he was working as dreadful, and he stated that many were going insane through starvation.

HUGH KINDERLEY IN TERMINAL CITY

Vancouver, Aug. 24.—After three months in the wilds of Canada's great northland, traversing more than 2,000 miles by canoe, Hugh Kinderley, son of Sir Robert Kinderley, Governor of the Hudson's Bay Company, and Capt. P. T. O'Kelly, formerly transport officer of the company in the far north, returned to this city yesterday.

The trip was undertaken with a view to visiting the posts of the Hudson's Bay Company in the far north, and Mr. Kinderley and his companion stopped at fourteen.

The discovery of oil did not enter into their calculations when they started, but one of the most interesting incidents of their trip was a stop of twenty-four hours at Fort Norman, in the Arctic Circle, near which place the Imperial Oil Company recently struck oil.

To overcome this lack of an element of your body that is necessary to your health, your happiness and even your success in life, weak, anemic, nervous, run-down people are advised to take Bitro-Phosphate as dispensed in leading drug stores in the original package.

Speaking of people who are easily fatigued, who lack ambition, nerve and energy, and who are suffering from indigestion, Dr. Joseph D. Harrigan, formerly Visiting Specialist North Eastern Dispensary, says: "Patients who were apparently physical wrecks, who foolishly sought medical aid, and who were told to 'eat up' and 'get on their feet' only a blood tonic to enrich the blood, have come for treatment trembling and shaking, their nerve force almost exhausted, and in many such cases the administration of Bitro-Phosphate has produced seemingly magical results."

People who feel the heat of summer, tire easily and often become irritable and depressed, will find Bitro-Phosphate an invaluable aid. It is a blood tonic, a nerve tonic, a strengthener, and a restorative. It is a tonic for the entire system, and it is a tonic for the mind. It is a tonic for the body, and it is a tonic for the soul. It is a tonic for the whole man, and it is a tonic for the whole woman. It is a tonic for the whole family, and it is a tonic for the whole world. Bert Lytell, which was seen at the Dominion Theatre last evening.

From the opening scene to the final close-up, this Metro screen version of Paul Armstrong's internationally celebrated crook melodrama held its audience in a breathless tension of interest.

Mr. Lytell's acting was a feature that must be passed over without tribute to its art. Especially noticeable was the fact that this young star exhibited restraint in places where over-acting would have spoiled the illusion. This quality, coupled with dynamic fire in the tighter moments, enhanced the play in no mean measure.

An excellent cast, including Viola Vale, Eugene Pallette, Wilton Taylor, Marc Robbins, Robert Dunbar, Winter-Hall and James Farley supported the star. Fins Fox is responsible for the scenario, Sol Polito for the photography and Sidney Ullman for the art effect. Maxwell Karger, director general, supervised the making of the entire picture.

VARIETY

Mildred Harris—Mrs. Charlie Chaplin—strikes a new note in the range of her artistry in "Forbidden," her first Jewel production since "Home." She is first seen as a simple-minded country girl engaged to a bucolic swain. Then like an answer to her prayers, comes Fred Worthington—handsome, wealthy, refined. But he is surfeited with the emptiness of the endless round of metropolitan pleasures while she craves it with all her soul. The entrancing story of their efforts to meet a common ground of understanding is told in "Forbidden," the latest Universal Jewel release, produced by Lois Weber at the Universal studios. Mrs. Chaplin, Mildred Harris, is the star. "Forbidden" is the current attraction at the Variety Theatre.

COLUMBIA

Playgoers who believed that the limit has been reached in photoplay realism were due for an awakening when they saw "The Great Air Robbery," the wonderful Universal feature which Lieutenant O. L. Locklear, who chances from plane to plane in mid-air, which was shown at the Columbia Theatre yesterday. The story of "The Great Air Robbery" is not only up-to-the-minute but a few years in advance; for it concerns Larry Cassidy, crack pilot of the American transcontinental mail service, and his fearless, daredevil feats in bringing to an end the exploits of a band of air pirates and winning the girl he loves. The mastery of the air by men and women of iron nerve and histrionic skill has made possible the filming of this thrilling narrative which, while it has yet had no parallel in real life, is quite within the scope of modern achievement. Charlie Chaplin in "A Day's Pleasure," his latest million dollar production under his contract with First National Exhibitors' Circuit, is the added attraction at the Columbia. Elmo Lincoln, the Sambo-like star of "Elmo the Fearless," the new serial now being shown at the Columbia Theatre has a prodigious chest expansion—six inches. When inflated, his measurement is 52 inches, several inches more than that of Jess Willard.

PANTAGES

Olive Thomas' new Selznick Picture, "Out Yonder," which opened at Pantages Theatre yesterday, is one which for sheer, gripping interest has seldom been approached. The genius of Director Ralph Ince and the artistry of Miss Thomas have combined to create as compelling a drama as the screen has ever known. Cast in the role of "Flores," a little waif of the sea, Miss Thomas displays that ability which has placed her foremost among the screen stars of today. There is an elusive, elfin charm about her to which words do scant justice, but which surrounds her on the screen with an almost tangible aura. It is this charm which she employs to such good advantage in "Out Yonder."

Miss Thomas is excellent, the supporting cast is adequate, direction is masterly and the scenic effects are truly beautiful. In every way "Out Yonder" is a representative Selznick picture.

PRINCESS

To-morrow night at the Princess Theatre the Mildred Page Players will be seen in "The Renovated Ranch," as delightful a Western comedy as was ever written. There is nothing lacking in this clever play; there are tears and laughter, and thrills, and heart throbs in abundance.

Two new members will be presented in this offering. Frank Ellis will play the role of "Dimples," a mischievous imp of a cowboy who leaves a long trail of joy behind him wherever he goes.

Miss Alice Round, who is also making her first appearance at the Princess, will play the delightful part of the tenderfoot school mar'm.

There are a number of the best plays procurable being prepared by this company for the future, and the

LINGER LONGER LETTY
NEXT WEEK AT ROYAL

Next Monday and Tuesday, August 30 and 31, at the Royal Victoria Theatre, Oliver Morosco will present his new musical comedy, "Linger Longer Letty," with the inimitable Charlotte Greenwood as star. The agile Charlotte will be remembered here as the star of "So Long, Letty," the musical piece that made her a national favorite and the new play is a sequel to her former success, as she is once more the long and lanky Letty.

The book by Anna Nichols tells the story of a family of sisters, who are all society mad, except Letty, who is made the Cinderella, as she is the only one who can sew and cook, until she finally rebels and starts on a society career of her own, thereby involving herself and the rest of the cast in numerous funny complications.

The music is by Alfred Goodman, who has provided a tuneful score, while the cast supporting Miss Greenwood will be the same as during the run of the piece at the Fulton Theatre, New York, with the same big chorus and production.

Memories of forgotten days are recalled by the announcement from Alaska, that Sitka, the old Russian capital, has been raised to the status of a city of the first class in the territory.

The election of the city officials will take place on August 31.

Sitka will always be memorable in the history of the Pacific Coast because it was there that the first definite steps were taken between the British interests as represented by the Hudson's Bay Company and Russian interests as concerned in the operations of the Russian American Company, to restrict the supply of liquor to the Indians.

During the visit of Sir George Simpson, the famous governor of the Hudson's Bay Company, to Sitka in April, 1825, he discussed the subject with Governor Etholin. After they had in visits to the Skeena and Fort Taku witnessed the result of the frays produced by liquor, in which a number of the aborigines were murdered, they decided not to supply the natives with any intoxicants in future.

Many were the conclaves held in vain by the natives to have the obnoxious order rescinded in later years.

Sitka was founded in 1803 as a Russian trading post, and now has a population of 1,100. It is noted for a museum of relics of the Russian occupation, which also has a fine collection of aboriginal souvenirs.

The object of the incorporation is to provide modern facilities for the ancient post.

FORTY-FIVE THOUSAND
NEW VOTERS IN B. C.

Some Ridings Show Decrease Because "Dead Heads" Have Been Taken Off

Voters registered in British Columbia on the new Provincial list total 292,917. This includes every riding with the exception of Atlin, the returns from which are not in yet.

This total is an increase of about 45,000 over the figures of 1915.

In Victoria, Prince Rupert and other places the 1920 total is less than that of 1915. This is explained by the fact that the new lists contain the names of only bona fide voters.

ESQUIMALT TO SEND
REEVE TO NELSON

Reeve Lockley Will Speak For Esquimalt at Municipalities Convention

The Esquimalt Council last night named Reeve Lockley as its representative at the Convention of the Union of B. C. Municipalities, which is scheduled to take place at Nelson on October 22. It was proposed that the usual two delegates should be sent, but Councillor Bridge protested as it would be very expensive, and it would be better if Esquimalt sent only one at all this year.

A Councillor Anderson remarked: "I always maintain that, if you belong to any such organization, you had better be represented and so see that your interests are protected."

He then moved the Reeve attend.

Councillor Bridge asked that, as a matter of principle, his vote be recorded against representation.

"Mr. Reeve, I'm contrary, as in the earlier part of the year I moved that, so long as F. A. McDiarmid is the solicitor for the Union, we should have nothing to do with that organization."

Reeve Lockley said that a note would be made of his vote and the reason.

The letter announcing the date of the Convention covered copies of a memorandum regarding the objects of the Local Government Board, prepared by Inspector Municipalities Robert Baird. The Council will give this memorandum careful consideration in order that its well-on various points may be correctly presented by its spokesman when the matter comes up for discussion as the main business of the Convention.

Extend Survey Scheme.

Engineer Bourne informed the Council that Surveyor Bateman Hutchinson had, as a requisite to securing correct lines for the area between Esquimalt Road and Ling's Cove which he is surveying for the Council, secured complete data for the area to the south of Esquimalt Road extending to Lyall Street.

Engineer Bourne suggested that the information should be secured and that he should be instructed to make concrete street monuments and mark the correct street lines now available.

Engineer Bourne stated that the cost would be $200, and as the use of these monuments would be in which the streets will be rectified, the Council adopted the proposal, and a by-law will be prepared authorizing the expenditure of the money. The original scheme of road rectification was to have cost approximately $500.

Ask Provincial Aid.

The poor condition of Admiral's Road and Craigflower Road was brought before the Council by Councillor Anderson, and the suggestion being made that the Provincial Government be asked to contribute a percentage of the cost of primary and secondary highways, the Council decided to ask Mr. R. H. Pooley, M. P., the member for Esquimalt, to co-operate with the Municipal Engineer in representations to the Provincial Public Works Department for a grant in aid of the repair of these two thoroughfares under the Highway Act.

The Highways Act comes into effect at the close of this year, and provides for the payment from Provincial funds of 75 per cent of the cost of maintenance of primary highways between centres of population and for the payment likewise of 40 per cent of the cost of secondary roads.

Cemetery Costs.

On the motion of Councillor Bridge, the Council will try to secure figures on the cost of land in Esquimalt for a municipal cemetery, the proposal being made after Reeve Lockley had reported that the Inter-Municipal Cemetery Committee had been well

TO EXPLAIN PENSION
ACT PROVISIONS

Ottawa, Aug. 24.—For the purpose of explaining to returned soldiers and their dependents, and also the public who are interested, the provisions of the amended Pension Act, Col. John Thompson, chairman of the Board of Pension Commissioners, and Col. J. Margeson, Commissioner, will make a tour of the Western Provinces next month, addressing public meetings. At the same time the Pension Commissioners will hear appeals from Pension Board awards.

Leaving Ottawa about September 16, the Pension Commissioners plan to commence a series of meetings in one of the British Columbia cities and thereafter visit every large city in the four Western Provinces. Then they will go to some of the United States cities where there are a great number of former C.E.P. men, and address them also.

An Irish woman looking for a tip from a tourist, began showering blessings on him thus: "May the blessing of Heaven follow you all the world over."

Then, as the tip was not forthcoming, she completed the sentence thus: "And may it never overtake you!"

When the Dominion Government's programme of ship construction has been completed Canada will have a mercantile marine of 63 ships, representing an expenditure of $75,000,000. The fleet will aggregate 350,000 tons, so the public will be the largest ship owner, as well as the biggest railroad owner, in the Dominion. The Minister of Marine and Fisheries yesterday pointed out that forty of the national vessels had been completed to date and were in actual operation, some running between this coast and Australasia and the others between the Canadian Atlantic ports and various parts of the world. Eventually the whole fleet will be operated in conjunction with the Canadian National Railways.

Canada has become an important shipowner in a very short time. It is a peculiar circumstance, however, that this development, like the nationalization of more than half our railway lines, should have been directed by a Government whose members, for the most part, did not believe in national ownership or operation of such public utilities as transportation services. But they had no alternative. The Canadian Northern system was virtually thrust upon the country and the acquisition of the other roads was an unescapable sequel. Another inevitable consequence was the development of a national mercantile marine, for obviously the ownership of two great transcontinental railway systems had to involve either the ownership or the control of steamship connections as a business necessity.

The operation of some 20,000 miles of railway and 350,000 tons of shipping is a tremendous task, especially if present economic conditions continue for any length of time. It is by far Canada's greatest problem and one more intimately related to the country's development than anything else, except government itself. Clearly the country cannot afford to take any chances on inefficient direction, or political interference, and the Government should see that those who are placed in charge of these immense interests are the ablest men available, big enough to keep even Ministers at a distance and to conduct the enterprises entrusted to their management in a strictly businesslike way.

THE SOVIET ARMY'S GRAVE

General Weygand, who was chief-of-staff to Marshal Foch during the great war and who is now at Warsaw, is reported in The Paris Matin as predicting that Poland will be the grave of three-fourths of the Bolshevik army. Whether this able strategist has been accurately reported or not, it is patent that the Poles under French leadership have disposed of a large part of the Russian army of invasion in such a way as to destroy its effectiveness as an offensive organization, besides giving a new character to the peace negotiations at Minsk. If the Russian forces which ventured too far into the Polish sack between the Narew river and the Prussian border, in the hope of capturing what is known as the Danzig corridor, have actually been surrounded, the Poles will not need to negotiate on any other basis than one largely determined by themselves.

It is to be hoped that both Poland and Russia will profit by the lessons of this last campaign and keep out of one another's country. The Poles will make a serious mistake if, flushed with victory, they attempt another invasion of Russia, and they will be wise if they stand at the frontier fixed by the Treaty of Versailles. Besides, if the Soviet defeat in Poland is big enough, it may react disastrously upon the Lenin-Trotsky Government. Governments in Russia never have survived serious defeat in the past and the rattletrap structure now in Moscow may not survive this one.

A SURPRISING DECISION.

It is a rather peculiar circumstance that the administration of the Soldiers Civil Re-Establishment Department, in pursuance of the announced policy of consolidation of hospitals, should plan to move the convalescent patients from Esquimaux and Craigdarroch to the Vancouver military hospitals.

The Dominion Government spent a large sum in extensions at the Esquimaux Hospital, fitting it for the needs of the patients during the great war, and then when the leases of the Qualicum and Resthaven hospitals came to an end Craigdarroch was chosen, and equipped for vocational work.

Now, according to the Hon. S. F. Tolmie, the Department will move patients from permanent homes on this Island to leased premises on the Mainland, away from the associations the inmates have formed in the years of their curative treatment. Verily, its ways are past finding out.

WHY ALL THIS?

Using the figures of the last four months as a basis, The Ottawa Journal, a staunch friend of the Dominion Government, ventures the prediction that this year the Minister of Finance will find himself in possession of the unparalleled sum of at least $700,000,000 to carry on the business of the country.

The Journal regards this as a magnificent prospect. It is altogether too magnificent. The Canadian public is being taxed to the very eyebrows to raise this enormous total, which is more than twice as much as the Government should require for legitimate expenditures.

The country would be much better off with less revenue if it meant an appreciable reduction in that particular form of taxation which bears most heavily upon the country's production. If Sir Henry Drayton is not careful he will discover that he has taxed this Dominion into the economic doldrums. He certainly can do with much less than $700,000,000 and still divert a healthy sum to the reduction of the national debt.

BALLOT REVOLUTION.

His official connection with the printing and kindred trades federation of Great Britain, as well as his occupancy of the mayoral chair in such an important London borough as Southwark, admirably qualifies Mr. George Isaacs, who is a member of the Imperial Press Association to tell the people of Canada something about the aims of British Labor that is not always conveyed by the average press dispatch.

Mr. Isaacs told a Winnipeg audience that the only revolution Great Britain wanted was that which could be brought about through that constitutional agency known as the ballot box. He declared that the heart of Labor in the Old Country—and in this country, too—was just as solid for the British Empire as any other class, and he appealed for the building of a bridge of understanding over the differences between the classes.

Mr. Isaacs speaks for a large body of intelligent workers when he speaks for the printing and allied trades. What he, together with Bowerman, Naylor, and a host of others who commenced life as printers' devils, are to this large section of organized Labor in Great Britain, so are Thomas, Adamson, Clynes, Tillet and Williams to that greater proportion of the workers—the moderate influence which may always depend upon the weight of public opinion in its advocacy of all reforms by the only constitutional means, the means which have created free British institutions in every corner of the far-flung Empire—the ballot box.

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS

PLANTING BLACK WALNUT.
(The Globe).

A black walnut plantation was set out by Sir Henri Joly de Lotbiniere at Point Platon thirty-seven years ago to test whether this valuable and beautiful exotic could equal the growth of native species of Quebec. The most prolific habitat of this tree ranges from New England to Minnesota and south to Texas, but Major Alain Joly de Lotbiniere, writing in The Canadian Forestry Journal shows that his grand father's experiment has been a success. The average diameter of the trees planted in the lee of a hill is seven inches, while those in the open have a diameter of only four inches. Taking the age of the plantation as thirty-seven years, the diameter growth of the former would be one inch in five years. In other words, the trees in the lee of the hill grew almost twice as fast as those in the open.

INVISIBLE LIGHT IN WAR.

(New York Evening Post).
When a source of light is put at the principal focus of a converging lens the emergent beam consists of parallel rays, and consequently does not change in cross-section as it proceeds, according to a discussion in the proceedings of the Physical Society of London. Often the narrowness of such a beam prevents it being observed. Greater accuracy was attained by using a filter, which permitted only the extreme red rays to issue. These would be invisible to an observer unless he protected his eyes from daylight by a similar screen. Through such a screen only the red light would penetrate and the eyes of the observer would be in a sensitive state owing to the exclusion of ordinary light. By such an arrangement secret signals can be transmitted. A variation of the method was the use of a screen transmitting only ultra-violet light, which was received on a fluorescent screen. The range of signalling in both cases was about six miles.

In maintaining communications between ships of the same convoy at night the light was sent out not as a parallel beam but as a beam diverging in all directions. A Cooper-Hewitt mercury arc was the light source. It was surrounded by a glass chimney, through which only ultra-violet rays emerged. The receiving apparatus is a barium-platinocyanide screen placed in the principal focus of a converging lens. The range was about four miles.

would be taken as evidence of disloyalty.

In Belfast.

Belfast, Aug. 24.—Rioting was renewed here last night, the most menacing disorder being a collision between Unionists and Sinn Féinists in Bally Macarrett, on the east side of the river Lagan. Shortly after eight o'clock the opposing crowds met in Blyson Street and Kilmore Street, where shooting and stone-throwing occurred. The police eventually succeeded in dispersing the rioters by a baton charge.

Police forces, who were later reinforced by soldiers, also dispersed crowds which attacked two shops in Montrose Street.

ALLIED LEADERS IN AGREEMENT

Immediate action to procure for Poland her full rights under the Treaty of Versailles, according to the Lucerne correspondent of The London Times. The decision reached, the correspondent adds, constitutes a firm re-establishment of the Franco-British Alliance.

Another Conference.

Premier Lloyd George sent a message to Premier Millerand expressing his hope of holding another conference soon with the French Premier.

A virtual ultimatum, demanding a reply within the week, was sent to Moscow, continuing the representative of The Times. It is thought probable that every available means will be used to force a free passage from Darnest to Poland, even employing troops if necessary.

Must Be Withdrawn.

London, Aug. 24.—Great Britain and Italy will refuse recognition to the Russian Bolshevik Government if it does not withdraw its demand, presented as a part of peace terms at Minsk, for a proletarian army in Poland. This has been decided upon by the British and Italian Governments. The British policy more approaches that of Italy regarding Germany and Russia. Both London and Rome are in better collaboration with Germany in the economic world, while France surrounds with an atmosphere of hatred the German people, preventing their economic resurrection, without which it is impossible for Germany to comply with her obligations under the Treaty of Versailles.

Breach of Faith.

'Presentation of this clause in the terms of peace laid before the Polish delegates at Minsk, after M. Kamenoff, Soviet representative here, had announced nothing important would be added to the peace conditions made public by him in this city last week,' was denounced as a 'gross breach of faith' in the Premier's statement.

It was said that negotiations of any kind with a Government 'which so lightly treats its word' become 'difficult, if not impossible.' It was understood here that a virtual ultimatum has been sent to Moscow by the two Premiers, whose decision regarding recognition of the Bolshevik Government is viewed as approval of the stand made against that step by Premier Millerand of France.

Corridor.

The Premiers indicated the Allies would secure to Poland the use of the corridor south of Danzig, and would, if necessary, use troops to carry out their plans in this region.

Italian Comments.

Rome, Aug. 24.—All the newspapers here comment on the meeting of Premiers Giotelli and Lloyd George at Lucerne. The Giornale d'Italia says: 'The British policy more approaches that of Italy regarding Germany and Russia. Both London and Rome are in better collaboration with Germany in the economic world, while France surrounds with an atmosphere of hatred the German people, preventing their economic resurrection, without which it is impossible for Germany to comply with her obligations under the Treaty of Versailles.'

RUM RUNNING ON A BIG SCALE

Police Official Tells of Conditions Along Saskatchewan — U.S. Border

Regina, Aug. 24.—"Rum running runs riot," according to Assistant Commissioner Tracey, of the Saskatchewan Provincial Police, who has returned here from Estevan, Sask., after investigating conditions along the International Border. In discussing the situation he said: "Estevan resembles Banff or some other national resort. Day after day the streets are lined with parked automobiles bearing license plates of every state in the Union."

Huge Proportions.

"Rum running on the border, especially from Estevan, has assumed huge proportions," declared Mr. Tracey, "and with a regular line of communication the men engaged are clearing thousands of dollars a month. Minot, in North Dakota, alone contains enough liquor to float a ship and is being used as a general clearing station for an organized gang. "Cars appear in Estevan from across the line and after laying to for a day or two make the return trip carrying cargoes which clear them easily $2,400 to $2,500 in Minneapolis. Along the line at this point there is a fringe of liquor stores upon which it is impossible to keep a check of the stock."

Hundreds At It.

"A wave of prosperity has swept Estevan since the trade has reached its present status. The game has proved so lucrative that hundreds are devoting their entire time to it. Conditions along the border are at present bordering on lawlessness, and only recently the daughter of a police chief was arrested and fined for carrying a concealed weapon."

"The great difficulty in preventing this rum running, which is all done in 'whisky' sizes," as the high-powered motorists are called, is the fact that it is not unlawful to carry liquor in cars unless it is for sale or has been purchased unlawfully. Once at the border it is out of our jurisdiction."

close touch with the movement. During the Summer a good deal of quiet work has been done in the way of organization and perfection of the detail of the party's political machinery, but it is not the intention of the leaders of the party to follow the example set by Premier Meighen and Hon. Mackenzie King to the extent of making a series of public addresses, according to what can be learned here. Hon. T. A. Cresser, leader of the party, is pending his vacation at the Lake of the Woods, but is expected home in a week or two.

CITY REVIVES

OLD TAX PLANS

To Decide Definitely on Poll Tax and Increased Amusement Tax

Several times considered and unanimously rejected, the proposed levy of a 50 poll tax and an increase of the amusement tax—as allowed in the Provincial Government's last budget—were brought before the City Council again last night in a report from the Finance Committee. Action on the matter, however, was deferred until a special meeting of the Council is held to consider the disposal of lands which reverted to the Corporation at the last tax sale.

Most of the aldermen thought that the poll tax and amusement tax questions had been forgotten long ago. They recalled that early in the year when the matter was brought before them they had refused, on more than one occasion, to consider it at all. This time, however, the Finance Committee recommended only that the Council decide definitely one way or the other whether it would collect the 50 poll tax or increase the amusement tax.

Alderman Andros was the chief speaker on the question. He roundly assailed the proposed increase in the amusement tax, declaring that theatre operators were paying quite as heavy taxes as they could afford. Amusements were an asset, he affirmed, and should be considered as such instead of being taxed out of existence.

Finally the Council adopted the Finance Committee's report, but left in abeyance a decision upon the issue involved.

TO GIVE Y.M.C.A.

WATER REDUCTION

Despite the strenuous opposition of a strong section led by Mayor Porter, the City Council last night decided to grant the Young Men's Christian Association a fifty per cent. reduction in its water charges this year.

Last year the Y. M. C. A. received a reduction of eighty per cent., but so strong was the opposition to a similar concession this year that it appeared for a time that no reduction whatever would be allowed. The Mayor and a number of aldermen argued that the Y. M. C. A. should be put on the same basis as other charitable institutions, and they declared that, if reduced rates were to be allowed it, similar reductions should be granted the Jubilee Hospital, the St. Joseph's Hospital and such other institutions. If the city wished to assist the Y. M. C. A., they said, it should do so with money grants. It was not fair, in their opinion, to make the City Waterworks Department the "goat."

Last night, after some discussion, Mayor Porter and Aldermen Sangster, Andros and Dinsdale voted against any reduction. Alderman Sangster remarked, "I hope you treat all other institutions the same."

Regina Man Says Nothing Relieved Malarial Trouble Contracted in Egypt Until He Got Tanlac

Wilfred Smith, 1256 King Street, is still another man of prominence in the business and civic affairs of Regina, who has raised the remarkable reconstructive powers of Tanlac.

Mr. Smith, with the exception of the time spent with the Canadian Expeditionary Forces overseas, has been a general contractor in Regina for twelve years, and his standing and influence are too well known to require further comment. While discussing Tanlac, which has been of such great benefit to him Mr. Smith said:

"I feel heartier and stronger than I have in a long time, and I cheerfully endorse Tanlac for it certainly is a great medicine."

"Nearly three years ago I went with my unit from France over to Egypt for the purpose of bridge building, and the first week I was there I contracted a malarial trouble which resulted in a complete breakdown and pulled me down sixty pounds in weight. Well, the trouble followed me back to Canada and remained with me until about a year ago when I got rid of it by taking Tanlac."

"I would have sudden attacks when my fever ran up to one hundred and five. I would shiver and shake all over, and have to be sent home from my work. My appetite left me so completely that I hadn't the least desire for food of any kind, and my condition became such that I could not do justice to my work."

"Almost immediately after I began taking Tanlac I noticed a change for the better coming over me. The first bottle gave me a fine appetite, and a few bottles put me on my feet feeling like myself again. I have had none of those fever attacks this year, and am now thoroughly enjoying all my meals. I have been built up and strengthened until I am able to carry on my work as I did before my trouble started, and I give Tanlac all the credit for my restoration, because it was not until after I started taking it that I noticed any improvement whatever in my condition. I am glad to give this statement for what it may be worth to others who are trying to find something to build them up and put them in good shape."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Fort and Douglas, and Lang's Drug Store, Esquimalt Road.

At St. Mary's Church, Oak Bay, yesterday the marriage of Oliver Vera Belton, only daughter of J. W. Belton and the late Mrs. Belton, of Olympia Avenue, Oak Bay, to Charles Henry Webb, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Webb, "Bromley," Carey Avenue, was solemnized by the Rev. G. H. Andrews. CONVENERS FOR "HEATHER DAY"

Lady Douglas Chapter to Commemorate Departure of First Troops Thursday

Thursday is "Heather Day," the sixth anniversary of the day on which the first contingent departed from Victoria for the battlefields of Europe. As in the past few years, Europe's L.O.D.E. Chapter, I.O.D.E., will sell tiny sprigs of heather, a custom which was inaugurated on August 26, 1914, when the departing soldiers were presented by Chapter members with tiny sprays of the Scottish bloom "for luck."

Owing to the City Council's ban on tag days and the selling of souvenirs in the streets, the sprays of heather will be sold in some of the leading stores and banks by kind permission of the various managements. The headquarters for the day will be at the I.O.D.E. rooms, fourth floor of the Jones Building. Mrs. Willis M. By kind permission of the proprietors, baskets of heather will be left in the following restaurants on Thursday: Kelway's, Clay's, the Dominion Hotel, Tighe and Wheeler's, and the New England. The proceeds will be devoted to the chapter's work.

The recent Mrs. McKicking, will be at the headquarters all day tomorrow and Thursday, and will gladly welcome assistance from any members or friends of the Lady Douglas Chapter.

Living Costs $8 Per Week. The other girls in the department store proved most friendly, Miss Dockerty said, and soon she was hearing the stories of their lives. In most cases, they were meager enough; a steady round of routine duties, with an occasional "beast" to give good times. In the boarding house where she stayed for $8 a week, she met others.

One of the most delightful experiences she reports is the adventure she had with a "hello" girl, a telephone operator who lived in her boarding house. One night she left her purse in her room, with her key in it, and could not get into the boarding house for several hours. As she sat outside on the stoop, the telephone operator came along. It was well past supper time.

"Had your supper?" asked the "hello" girl.

Miss Dockerty shook her head. "I have no money," she began, starting to explain that she had left it in her room.

Without waiting to hear the rest, the telephone girl instantly opened her purse. "Here's a dollar," she said, holding out the money. "I will feed you. I've got two of them, and to-morrow's payday. You can give it back to me when you get yours."

Miss Dockerty took the dollar without any further explanation, such generosity could not be denied. When her month was ended she left the department store. They seemed really sorry to have her leave, she said, which made her feel that she had been a distinct success.

Miss Dockerty looked at the woman, and smiled. The educational director had known her as Ruth Vosburgh. From her she had received her first lesson in salesmanship in the department store, on the day when she had started to work a month before.

"It was a real vacation," Miss Dockerty declared before she left Minneapolis. "I have enjoyed it all. Sometimes I got very tired, but everything was so new and interesting to me, that I was rested by the novelty. If any girl wants to do a month's brimful of worthwhile experiences, I recommend that she take a 'vacation' just like mine was."

Gouraud's Oriental Cream

Minneapolis, Aug. 24.—Summer seashore and mild flirtations may have been good enough for the vacation of the "summer girl" of old, but modern maids have ideas far different. A vacation which is believed to be unique has just been completed in Minneapolis by Miss Ruth Vosburgh Dockerty, daughter of a prominent horticulturist of Mitchell, Ia. Miss Dockerty has gone home after spending a month's vacation in a large Minneapolis department store as a "sales girl."

Miss Dockerty has had plenty of money all her life, because her father gave it to her. She has never had to work for a living. But she knew that other girls did have to work, and work hard, for not too much pay. She wanted to find out just how they did it.

A month ago Miss Dockerty came to Minneapolis. She knew no one here. She had never visited the city before. She brought with her just enough money to tide her over until she got a "job." She felt that she was in the position of most girls who come to the "big city" for work.

First Stop at Y. W. C. A.

From the Great Northern station she went directly to the Y. W. C. A., where she registered in the employment bureau under the name of Ruth Vosburgh. She told the secretary what was true, that she was a stranger in Minneapolis and wanted work. From the secretary she got a recommendation for a suitable rooming place for a "working girl," and the information that a large department store here was seeking girls.

The next day she went to the employment manager. "Any previous experience?" she was asked. "No." "Any education?" "Some," she answered briefly. "Did you go to high school?" "Yes." She did not volunteer the information that she had also gone to the university, and the employment manager did not ask it.

She "sailed," and promptly got a place as "sales girl" at $12 a week. On this $12 a week, which was not increased during her month's stay, Miss Dockerty lived in Minneapolis. She has spent nothing beyond it. "I had had to buy clothes, I would have stopped eating for a while."

Living Costs $8 Per Week.

ENJOYED VACATION AS SALES GIRL

University Graduate Takes Novel Holiday; Interesting Experiences

Minneapolis, Aug. 24.—Summer seashore and mild flirtations may have been good enough for the vacation of the "summer girl" of old, but modern maids have ideas far different. Living Costs $8 Per Week.

The other girls in the department store proved most friendly, Miss Dockerty said, and soon she was hearing the stories of their lives. In most cases, they were meager enough; a steady round of routine duties, with an occasional "beast" to give good times. In the boarding house where she stayed for $8 a week, she met others.

One of the most delightful experiences she reports is the adventure she had with a "hello" girl, a telephone operator who lived in her boarding house. One night she left her purse in her room, with her key in it, and could not get into the boarding house for several hours. As she sat outside on the stoop, the telephone operator came along. It was well past supper time.

"Had your supper?" asked the "hello" girl.

Miss Dockerty shook her head. "I have no money," she began, starting to explain that she had left it in her room.

Without waiting to hear the rest, the telephone girl instantly opened her purse. "Here's a dollar," she said, holding out the money. "I will feed you. I've got two of them, and to-morrow's payday. You can give it back to me when you get yours."

Miss Dockerty took the dollar without any further explanation, such generosity could not be denied. When her month was ended she left the department store. They seemed really sorry to have her leave, she said, which made her feel that she had been a distinct success.

Miss Dockerty looked at the woman, and smiled. The educational director had known her as Ruth Vosburgh. From her she had received her first lesson in salesmanship in the department store, on the day when she had started to work a month before.

"It was a real vacation," Miss Dockerty declared before she left Minneapolis. "I have enjoyed it all. Sometimes I got very tired, but everything was so new and interesting to me, that I was rested by the novelty. If any girl wants to do a month's brimful of worthwhile experiences, I recommend that she take a 'vacation' just like mine was."

W. D. ARCHER HAD SEEN MUCH SERVICE

Member of British Campaigners Association Is Called By Death

William Day Archer, notable veteran of all Empire wars during almost the last half-century, died at his quarters in the Work Point Barracks early this morning.

He enlisted in 1886 in the Army Service Corps. After twenty-one years' service he was pensioned. During that time he won the Sudan (Khedive's) Medal, 1898; Sudan (Queen's), 1899; South Africa (King's), 1901-2; South Africa (Queen's) with bars for the relief of Ladysmith, Cape Colony and the Transvaal.

For three years he served in the Canadian army in the artillery at Work Point Barracks. On the outbreak of the last war he was working at Yarrows, Esquimalt. He tried to enlist in the Canadian forces, but he was refused because of his age. This did not daunt him. He paid his own passage back to England, where he was accepted in the Royal Army Service Corps. He did one year and eighty-one days' service in this branch when he was transferred to the Royal Marine Naval Corps, with which he served two years and sixty-six days. He served in France from August, 1915, to February, 1919.

On his record in the present war he was entitled to the Mons Star, Victory medal and the General Service medal.

On his return from the front Mr. Archer was immediately taken back at Yarrows. He worked there until last night.

He leaves a wife who is caterer at the sergeants' mess at Work Point Barracks and one son, thirteen years of age.

The military authorities will honor him with a military funeral Thursday morning. He will be buried in the Esquimalt Cemetery. All British Campaigners and representatives of other military organizations are expected to attend.

FEWER APPLES, BUT FINEST QUALITY MARK COMING CROP

Local Fruit Growers Have But One-third Usual Orchard; Cold Spring Blamed

An apple crop of excellent quality, but far below normal in quantity, is now a certainty for Southern Vancouver Island, a survey of the orchards of Saanich showing that the same cause which has contributed to a light plum harvest and a fifty per cent. pear crop apply to practically every section of the district.

The effects of a backward spring are now in evidence, and the weather conditions which held back the blossoming season and so made pollination light are now showing marked effect in the orchards.

This is especially to be noted in the winter varieties of apples, where the crop will rarely run above thirty per cent. of normal. Among these varieties are Ben Davis, Baldwin, Jonathan, King and Grimes Golden, all of which will be scarce this year on the local market.

Fall apples appear to have done much better. Wealthy, Gravenstein and Alexander all having been pollinated to greater extent than the spring crop.

The apparent set of fruit shown earlier in the season has been greatly thinned out through this lack of work by the bees, and a large percentage of the fruit visible at the time having slipped off for lack of strength.

While much of this loss is due to the poor conditions of the spring, and more to lack of pollination, is due to reaction from last year's big crop.

The same considerations apparent in the loss of much of the fruit showing earlier in the season.

Plums Again Disappointing.

Plums were few last year, and have this year only a more disappointing growth, but whereas last year's light crop was due to spring frost, this year the whole blossoming season is credited with the poor showing.

The one fall fruit which is vastly better than last year's showing is the prune, which this year is showing an excellent crop in all the districts.

The past season has been unusually free from insect pests of the description which injure apples and other fall fruits, and the careful spraying which is now universal, together with an excellent growing season for the first few weeks, have combined to mature fruit of the highest grade.

POSTAL WORKERS HOLD CONVENTION

Edmonton, Aug. 24.—Strict adherence to the forty-four-hour week was decided upon by the Amalgamated Union of Postal Workers at their convention session this morning.

Complaint had come from a number of sources that full observance of the Department's instructions was far from being general, and in number of localities men were working longer hours, due to local conditions. The convention felt that it was a situation that could not be tolerated, and passed a resolution to that effect, which was carried unanimously.

Another matter of grievance which was brought up was the color and cut of the uniforms supplied to transfer men at railway stations. It was contended that they were a striking resemblance to the German field uniform—so much so that when the Chinese coolies were returning to their native land they noticed a couple of men on a train platform and called them Heinies. The feeling of the convention was that there should be an immediate change, overalls being recommended in lieu of anything else.

Ottawa, Aug. 24.—(Canadian Press) Date has yet been set for the meeting of the Grand Trunk arbitrators, but it is expected that the first meeting will take place early in October. In the meantime the representatives of the Government and of the Grand Trunk are each preparing their cases to be laid before the board of arbitrators. As there is an imminent danger of the strike involved in settling out the necessary statements, it is not expected either side will be ready to proceed before another six weeks.

CHIEFS EXPLAIN PROGRESS OF MUTUAL LIFE

Local representatives and examining physicians of the Mutual Life of Canada, Victoria, gathered at a luncheon at the Empress Hotel yesterday to hear addresses from the Manager, Chas. Ruby, C. M. Bowman, Chairman of the Investment Committee; Dr. J. H. Webb, the Medical Director, and S. C. Tweed, Superintendent of Agencies.

Mr. Bowman stated that the investments of the Company were never in a better condition than at the present time, and lately they had been particularly fortunate in obtaining some long term investments at a rate which would prove very remunerative and at the same time greatly stabilize the present excellent earning power of the Company for many years to come. Mr. Bowman also declared that the fundamental principles of the Company, principles which had stood the test of fifty years, are being strictly adhered to by the present directorate.

The total assets of the Company in 1919 amounted to $6,216,35, whereof $1,870,000 was invested in real estate through steady growth and progress the Company now had at the end of the year 1919 total assets of no less than $38,020,949.66, he said.

Mr. Bowman said that throughout his visit to the various agencies he had found the same spirit pervaded the entire field force, and safeguarding the interests of the Mutual Life, and the best possible service to the people was their constant aim.

Mr. Ruby's address largely was composed of an answer to the following question: "Has the Mutual Life kept faith?" He drew attention to the fact that the Mutual Life of Canada is the largest amount of genuine life insurance in force at the lowest possible cost. As mortality, investment earning and lapsation of business are factors which largely determine the surplus of a life insurance company, Mr. Ruby's claim was upheld, as the low mortality, interest earning power and small lapse ratio were evidence of the company's success. Mr. Ruby said conditions in the West were excellent and the outlook first class for the coming months.

KIWANIANS ENJOY SPEECH AND MUSIC

Merriment Rife at Weekly Luncheon, Under Auspices of "J's and K's"

To-day was Jazz day with the Kiwanis Club assembled in regular weekly luncheon at the Dominion Hotel, the entertainment being provided by the "J's and K's." Entertainment was the strong feature of the day, and outside of some humorous three-minute speeches the whole time of the luncheon was given over to an excellent programme of lively merriment provided by the entertainers for the week, led by Mr. Kirk. The Watson orchestra, including piano, drum and saxophone, made up an excellent arrangement of musical instruments that provided a first-class ground for the humorous songs of Tom Obee, who delighted his hearers with two Coster representations in the lighter vein. All during the luncheon, and during the intermissions in the addresses, the orchestra delivered a lively selection of the latest, and perhaps the most jazzy of music.

On the programme of speeches that was provided, Dr. Butler won the prize offered for the best three-minute address by a very clever and convincing talk on "Why people should not patronize the Thomson Funeral Home" for pleasure or business. The prize consisted of a new sewing machine, the application being that a stitch in time saves nine.

Fred McGregor and Chris Little took opposite sides on the question of the "inherent worth of the shoe store operated by G. D. Christie," which H. Lee and George Bell were arranged against one another on the important matter of just whether Messrs. Little & Taylor sold good or poor jewelry. Darrell Spence and William Ivel clashed on the point of the "value of the particular brand of life insurance when purchased from The Mutual Life."

All the three-minute talks were intensely funny, at least to the audience, and the efforts of the willing orators were terminated by strident blasts on a particularly ferocious Klaxon horn, bearing the name "K's." Several guests were introduced to the gathering on the conclusion of the entertainment. The "J's and K's" were heavily congratulated by their colleagues on the excellent entertainment provided.

Mr. Miller said that a number of men have been laid off in Toronto factories and that other factories are practically making time.

It also was agreed that if the firemen should decide to strike they would give the city forty-eight hours notice.

The question of investigating the fire department, as requested by the firemen, will come up before the City Council to-night.

LAST WEEK PEAK OF TOURIST SEASON

Record Numbers Visit Victoria and Island in Past Seven Days

The peak of an abnormally brisk tourist season came last week, when the number of visitors to the city during the seven days of last week was said to be greater than the corresponding period for the last several years, and the question of accommodation and facilities for the number making the tour of the city and up-Island points.

Hotels Crowded:
The city hotels housed a greater number of guests last week than in any of the previous months of the year, while the passenger accommodation on the ferry boats was taken to the limit. The vessels sailing to Alaska, Prince Rupert, and other northern points were crowded, and bookings were made weeks in advance. On Sunday and Monday of this last week-end no less than 1,000 people made the trip out of Victoria, returning to the United States.

Expect Prairie Visitors.
Inquiries at the Victoria and Island Development Association have been more numerous for the past ten days than almost any other part of the entire summer season up to this date, and the inquiries continue, promising a continued rush of vacationists to Victoria and up-Island points, while the warm weather lasts. Up to the present the visitors have been mainly from the United States, but later on, on the conclusion of the harvest period, Prairie visitors are expected to book the number of local vacationists up to an even higher pitch.

VACCINATION ORDER DISRUPTS PASSENGER TRAFFIC ON RIVER

Quebec, Aug. 24.—(Canadian Press)—Steamship officials are disturbed over an order issued by the Immigration Department that no passengers on ocean liners, whether steamer, second class or third class, shall be permitted to land at Canadian ports before being vaccinated, unless they can give proof that they have previously been vaccinated within the required time.

As a result of this order the C.P. O.S. Prima Fredericka Wilhelmina was recently held up at Grosbeak for five hours and the passengers did not reach Montreal before midnight, when it was difficult to secure hotel accommodation.

Steamship officials stated that if this order holds, passengers will cease to use the St. Lawrence and other Canadian routes when they can get accommodation on others. They point out that the ruling is absurd since passengers can land at any

Mary Gets Overhaul

Some changes in the C. P. R. schedule of sailing for Skagway and the North are noted to-day. The Princess Mary is to be withdrawn in September for a few weeks, and will be retained in commission as a relief boat to aid in the triangular and other runs. Some overhauls will be effected in the C. P. R. fleet in September with the extra vessel thus obtained. The dual service is to be resumed again in October, when the Mary will rejoin the Alice on the northern route. In September the sailings of the Alice will be as follows: September 3, 14 and 24.

GOVERNMENT SAYS ICBREAKER TENDERS STILL TOO HIGH

Expected To Abandon Idea,
As Cost Over $2,000,000
At Lowest Estimate

Ottawa, Aug. 24.—(Canadian Press)—Tenders for the proposed new government ice-breaker, which it was hoped to have in commission by November, 1921, are proving substantially in excess of parliament's appropriation of $2,000,000. Three tenders have been received by the Marine Department, one from Halifax, another from the Canadian Vickers Company and the third from the Wallace Shipyard of British Columbia, all of which are regarded as excessive by the Department. The estimate of the three received in view of the excessive tenders it seems likely that the work of building an ice-breaker will not be proceeded with for a while.

MOTORSHIP PACIFIC MAKES VANCOUVER AFTER ACCIDENT

Damage to Hull Not Thought Serious; Makes Port Under Own Power

Vancouver, Aug. 23.—While feeling her way through thick fog and smoke in the Straits, the motorship Pacific, Captain Gedda, ran ashore on Sunday off Beecher Bay, and was stranded for five or six hours before she was floated on the rising tide. The vessel was bound to this port from Peru and is the first vessel of the newly established service of the Johnson Line to come here. After being floated the vessel proceeded to this port and was moored at the B. C. Sugar Refinery wharf this morning.

Captain Gedda is of the opinion that the ship is not badly damaged, but he probably only inspected before she proceeded on her long voyage to Sweden. She has between 700 and 800 tons of sugar which she loaded in Peru.

MARINE NOTES.
The Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Tajima is loading at Seattle and will touch here on Friday, sailing again at 5 p. m. for Japanese and Chinese ports.

The barquentine Conqueror got away last night with a cargo of lumber for European ports, after being in the Roads for several days awaiting a crew. Captain Hersey had no difficulty in obtaining the men he wanted, and the ship's company departed in great good humor on their long voyage.

The three-seater flying boat of the Boeing Aviation Company, which is fitted up in a manner entirely novel to aircraft—being used as the personal machine for the owner, Mr. Boeing—touched at Cabbro Bay this morning, and left before noon for up-country. Eddie Hubbard, the well known pilot of the Boeing Aviation Company, piloted the machine and was making for Campbell River to pick up Mr. Boeing, who is there on a fishing trip.

The Curtiss seaplane of the Vancouver Island Aerial Service Company, piloted by W. H. Brown, with N. Goddard, returned yesterday to Messrs. Yarrow's plant at Esquimalt for further adjustments to the pontoons. The machine landed in the harbor along the shipping plant, and was hauled out to the dock by the big derrick.

The Blue Funnel liner Tyndareus arrived at the Outer Wharf early this morning and sailed for the Orient shortly before noon. A fair cargo of general merchandise was carried in the hold for the outgoing voyage.

Latterly Commander Holme has been in charge of naval stations on the Atlantic Coast, and more recently still was in command of the H. M. C. S. Niobe. After leave in England, Commander Holme proceeded to Ottawa and from that point has arrived in Victoria to take up his new duties. With the arrival here of the new superintendent of the Esquimalt naval dockyard, the resignation of Captain E. H. Martin goes into effect. The C.P.O.S. Empress of Asia will be passing out from Vancouver on Thursday evening with a large cargo of general merchandise, and a full passenger list for the Orient. The Harold Dollar is loading at Vancouver and is expected to get away tomorrow for the United Kingdom. With the expected arrival of the Mont Cenis on Thursday it completes the movements of vessels for the end of the month.

The first two weeks of September, however, will see renewed activity in the ocean going traffic of the port. On September 5 the C.P.O.S. Montclair is expected to arrive from the Orient. September 10 is the date stated for the arrival of the Canadian-Australian liner Niagara. The Blue Funnel liner Ixion, and the O.S.K. Hawaii Maru are due on September 12, with the C.P.O.S. INDIANS WROTE ANTI-KAISER SONG

Poncas Also Show They Were Original Shimmy Dancers
In Exhibition

How intense was the feeling of the Indian tribes of the United States against the German Kaiser, a feeling that was increased no doubt because so many of their young men were called to war, has just become known at Ponca City, Okla., through the rendition of a Ponca Indian song, composed during the war as a protest against the Kaiser, outlining their hatred of the men who brought on the World War and made it necessary for them to send their sons overseas to assist in his defeat. The entire song is in the Ponca Indian language, but the English word understood excepting by those who can speak the Ponca tongue.

The rendition of this song in Ponca City came about through an invitation to the Ponca Indians to assist in celebration by giving a series of their tribal dances on the business streets. Because of the Poncas danced in a town or city, always are these given out on their reservation at their stomp-ground or in their roundhouses.

co-operation of Ponca City citizens with the tribe in attempts to relocate their tribal song, the Poncas accepted the invitation and gave three separate dance programmes, greatly to the delight and entertainment of the crowd.

Dance Interprets Song.
The "Kaiser Song" as the Poncas term it, was composed by Fred Smith, a full-blooded Ponca, who is the chief interpreter of the tribe. The Poncas are given and one of the five tomtoms beaters. This song, as are all others of the Poncas, is interpreted by the tribe in dancing, which is in progress while the five tomtoms beaters sing and chant the words. The music to a certain extent, follows the usual Indian chant, excepting at intervals it grows much louder than is the custom and even strident at times, where anger is expressed toward the former German war lord.

It was an easy matter, in watching the Poncas dance, to learn where the shimmy came from, for the Poncas are no doubt the original shimmy dancers. There is not a man or woman in the tribe who cannot put to shame the city experts, and there were many exhibitions of it given during the street dancing by the tribe. Some of the younger men are able to compel every muscle in their bodies to tremble, doing so while standing absolutely still, but with some motion that puts every muscle into play. One squaw, who danced for a brief time only, proved that the hula-hula girls must look to their laurels.

8,000 at Celebration.
Each song that is danced by the Indians must have a separate closing or finale, a little act entirely apart from the main number. The finale, as the white people would call it, is always danced by two men selected for that service, two of the younger men who may happen to be among the best dancers of the tribe. The main song ends, the dancers all take

FIND NO RECORD OF TRAGIC LAKE ACCIDENT RECENTLY

Sault Ste. Marie, Aug. 23.—Search for the bodies of twenty-nine persons known to have lost their lives when the freighter Superior, City of Montreal, was wrecked in Lake Superior off Whitefish Point last night, has been abandoned to-day. All rescue parties have returned here after finding scarcely any wreckage.

Scores of vessels have traversed the spot where the collision and explosion occurred, without sighting any trace of the lost vessel.

DROWNED AT SPOKANE.

Spokane, Aug. 24.—In attempting to swim horseback across the Spokane River last evening, Miss Pearl Romely, aged seventeen years, was washed from the back of her horse and carried into a swirling eddy to her death.

Each song that is danced by the Indians must have a separate closing or finale, a little act entirely apart from the main number. The finale, as the white people would call it, is always danced by two men selected for that service, two of the younger men who may happen to be among the best dancers of the tribe. The main song ends, the dancers all take

It is estimated there were fully 3,000 Indians in Ponca City during the one day celebration, including Poncas, Ojibwas, Sioux, Cheyennes, Arapahoes and some Cheyenne, Arapahoes and Sioux. Prominent figures among them were Horse Chief, chief of the Poncas. Each of these declared that his particular tribe has a song of protest against the Kaiser, which is sung and danced on special occasions.

Four Teams Going After B. C. Water Polo Title

V. A. S. C. to Defend Championship at Gorge on Saturday Against Vancouver and Victoria Water Polo Club; Gala Promises to Be One of Most Successful of Season.

British Columbia's water polo championship will be at stake on Saturday afternoon, when the V. A. S. C. will hold its annual gala at the Gorge. This feature event has been allotted by the C. A. S. C. to the local club, which holds the title. The V. A. S. C. team won the trophy from the Vancouver team last summer and will have to defend it in the face of keen competition this season. The Victoria Water Polo Club, which entered two teams in the P. N. A. gala, has entered both teams for the B. C. championship.

Vancouver is sending over a very fast team in an effort to redeem its lost laurels. The entering of the four teams will provide three exceptionally fast games, two preliminaries and the final.

Water polo is arousing much interest in this city at the present time. The sport produces very exciting play and is highly interesting from a spectator's point of view. The speed shown by the players, the ability to shoot the ball with such surprising force from a position in the water, the fighting for the ball and the effective combination are points which engage the entire attention of the spectators while the game is in progress.

V. A. S. C. Fast Team.

The V. A. S. C. team has not been in any championship gala this season, but has been in faithful training and is in superb form to defend the trophy. Under the careful coaching of Jock McNeill, an old Scottish player and one of the best polo players ever had, the younger players have profited a great deal. They possess a wonderful degree of speed and their enduring powers are exceptional.

The opponents of the V. A. S. C. are all tried players and will provide a lot of opposition. It is expected that these games will act as a great drawing card for the gala.

Other Events.

Two other B. C. championships will be at stake on Saturday. The ladies' 100 yards' championship is expected to attract a large number of entries, including several Vancouver mermaids as well as a flock of local girls.

The 50 yards, junior championship of the Province, will no doubt reveal a faster crowd of youngsters than this city has seen in many days. Celmar Ross, the lad who won the 100 yards championship at Vancouver last Saturday, is coming over to try and show his heels to the local boys. Langton Plumb, of the V. A. S. C., is a strong favorite among his club members for the event.

The V. A. S. C. has arranged an event of special interest for the firemen, policemen and postmen of the city. The 200-yard relay race, four men to a team, will provide a lot of sport.

The Programme.

The complete programme is as follows:

50 yards, girls' race for the George Armstrong Memorial Cup (open to girls of the club only).

50 yards, boys 14 and under.

50 yards, girls 12 and under.

50 yards, junior championship of British Columbia.

50 yards, club handicap (club members only).

200 yards, relay, Victoria Firemen, Policemen and Postmen 4 to a team.

50 yards, dual crawl (mixed).

Plunging contest.

100 yards, ladies' championship of British Columbia.

Novelty event (blindfold race).

Final of the water polo championship of British Columbia.

London, Aug. 24.—(Canadian Associated Press)—Albion and Hearts drew in a Scottish football game yesterday one goal all.

Two Canadian Boxers Are in Olympic Finals

Antwerp, Aug. 24.—(Canadian Associated Press).—In the finals in the boxing matches at the Olympic games, Graham, of Toronto, meets Walker, of South Africa, in the bantamweight class, and A. Prudhomme, of London, Ont., meets Mallin, of England, for the middleweight championship.

Couldn't Have Own Way.

Antwerp, Aug. 24.—Two decisions in the boxing preliminaries, which ended after midnight last night, evoked loud cheers and dissenting cries from the United States spectators present, which others among the crowd sought to drown with hisses and booms. The uproar continued for several minutes and culminated in virtually all the Americans present walking out. Most of the American spectators were army and navy officers.

The objections of the United States contenders were first voiced over the decision in the bout between E. Hartman, United States, and Walker, South Africa. During the first three rounds Walker was floored twice, and the Hartman supporters evinced surprise when the bout was declared a draw and an extra round was ordered. At the close of which Walker was declared the winner. This decision drew from the Americans shouts of dissatisfaction, but the walkout occurred when Hebrants, a Belgian, was awarded the decision over S. Vogel, Pastime A. C.

Insulting Remarks.

While the United States fans were still out of the arena, the American coach, Webb, complained to the judges, who in turn complained to Major Graves, the U. S. boxing representative, for what they termed the insulting remarks of several of the Americans. Major Graves agreed to protest the Hartman and Vogel matches to the international jury.

Great British Second.

Antwerp, Aug. 24.—In the athletic programme completed yesterday afternoon the official position of the countries on points is as follows: United States, 219; England (fourth), 89; South Africa (seventh), 23; Canada (eighth), 13; New Zealand (thirteenth), 5. The British Empire comes a good second with a total of 126 points.

Norwegian First.

Antwerp, Aug. 24.—The final official figures for the decathlon place the men as follows: Loveland, Norway, 6,804.355; Hamilton, United States, 6,778.85; Olsson, Sweden, 6,579.395; Halmer,

Capitals Beat Seattle At Moonshine Baseball

Wee Kelly Was No Puzzle to Victoria Batters; Cy Young Had Little But Managed to Get By; Caps Jump Back Into League Leadership and Should Stay There.

Victoria, 10; Seattle, 5.

Moonshine baseball is the latest creation in this city. Last evening while the moon was peeking through the fleecy clouds the Giants and Capitals battled for the honor of winning the opening game of the series. Umpire Schilling refused to call the game before Seattle had batted in the seventh inning. By that time the Victoria outfielders seemed to be manoeuvring in a haze, and Carter Elliott must have had a pair of hawk's eyes when he got a bead on Hoffman's line drive for the last out.

After a rather rough series in Spokane the Capitals returned yesterday to finish the season at home. This week they have the tail-enders as their guests. The Giants are badly crippled aggregation and Victoria should take every game. Since the Giants were last here Heese, right fielder, has been suspended, and Bill Reid, a pitcher but a heavy hitter, is tending to that pasture. The recall of Bob Nixon by the Seattle Coast League team has weakened the left field, and Robke, another pitcher, has been pressed into daily service. With any kind of pitching the Capitals will give their standing in the league a big boost this week.

On Top Again.

Yesterday the ding-dong battles between Yakima and Tacoma were suspended for a day while the players shifted to a new batting ground. These teams will provide the fireworks for the villagers of Yakima this week. By virtue of their win over the Giants and the idleness of St. Louis and Tigers, the Capitals moved back into first place last night. It is not likely that they will be dislodged this week, but what upsets may come next week when Teasley, Bannard's squad returns will remain for the play to produce.

Last night Wee Kelly, who held on to a berth with the Capitals for the greater part of the season, but was cut out from Dumphy Collins was signed, took the mound for the Capitals and tried hard to fool his old teammates with his round-house curves. But Kelly soon found that the Capitals knew what he had, and was muzzled up for ten runs.

Young Had Little.

Cy Young did the flinging for the Capitals. He did not have very much, and was lucky to get by as smoothly as he did. The Giants touched him up for two runs in the first inning, and Bill Reid lifted the ball out of the park in the third for another tally. GOOD CRICKET ON FIRST DAY'S PLAY

Three Victoria and Two Vancouver Teams Victorious In Yesterday's Games.

Three Victoria and two Vancouver teams were victorious in the first day's play of the cricket tournament which commenced yesterday morning and is continuing all week. Two of the five matches were won rather easily, Vancouver taking the Army and Navy Veterans into camp by an inning and three runs, while the Garrison romped away with their contest with Cowichan by an inning and six runs.

Interesting cricket was provided in the other three matches Victoria and Congos have a batting spree at the Beacon Hill grounds. Both teams hit freely. Congos had a fine inning of 299. Victoria tried hard to eclipse this mark, but were all out for 193.

OLDS BEAT INCOGS.

The Incogs, which are tied with the Five C's for the championship of the Victoria and District Cricket League, acknowledged defeat at the hands of the Olds, at the University Grounds. The first inning gave Olds 100 and Incogs 88. In the second inning the Incogs declared with 155 for six wickets, but Olds had made 85 for three wickets when stumps were drawn.

Five C's had an interesting struggle with Nanaimo at the Jubilee grounds. The Coal City players batted well in the first inning and outscored Five C's, but in the second innings the local team came back strongly.

The hardest things of all to Wash

Small boys' suits—rompers—kitchen aprons—dish towels—
Try this wonderful new form of Soap on them.

Rinso

A new Soap product! Absolutely different from anything you have ever used before. Not a cake soap. Not a "washing powder." But fine granules of the pure soap heart. No harsh chemicals to eat fabric, destroy clothes or reddens the hands. Pure granules so rich in cleansing power that they dissolve all the dirt—the hardest dirt—after soaking a few hours, without rubbing or boiling. Never again should you wash in the old exhausting way. Let your clothes say good-bye to the rub, rub, rub ordeal of the washboard.

Rinso is not a "washing powder"

The fine granules of Rinso look much like a "washing powder," but—make this test. Use a heaping teaspoonful to a glass of boiling water.

WASHING POWDER —high in harsh chemicals—low in soap
RINSO —absolutely harmless—so rich in soap it "jells!"

AT NIGHT—

Soak the clothes with Rinso.

MORNING—

Rinse them out—that's all.

GET A PACKAGE TO-DAY

You cannot believe how wonderful Rinso is until you have tried it. No rubbing at all! Cleans as perfectly in cold water as in warm.

AN INTERESTING TEST

To show how different Rinso is to the ordinary washing powder, dissolve a heaping teaspoonful to a glass of boiling water. Let it cool. Turn it out. So rich in soap that it JELLS!

C. V. MILTON,

BETWEEN PEKING
AND NEW TERRITORYFar Eastern Republic Has Been Visited By Putnam
Weale

B. Lennox-Simpson, well known to a wide circle of readers under the name of Putnam Weale, who visited Victoria some time ago, has been recently engaged with two men, J. C. Ferguson and M. Padoux, in a new mission.

An alliance between the Chinese Republic and the Far Eastern Republic at Verkhne-Udinsk is to be urged by this mission sent by the Peking Government recently along the zone of the Chinese Eastern Railway and into Trans-Baikal, according to the Peking representative of the Russian Telegraph Agency, quoted by The Novosti Izvni, of Harbin.

Three Courses Open.

The mission is said to be of the opinion that for the solution of the Siberian situation there are open three courses: First, an alliance between Russia and Japan; second, an alliance between Japan and China, and third, an alliance between China and the Far Eastern Republic. The mission is said to be preparing a report urging the Peking Government to adopt the third course.

The reasons to be advanced for this action are as follows: China and Russia have been closely associated politically for more than 200 years; the long frontier between Russia and China makes some sort of an agreement necessary; there are in addition many economic reasons. Eastern Siberia is getting most of food supplies from Manchuria, while meat comes from the Mongolian markets. Siberia also has real need of the output of the young industries of China.

The mission is said to be fully convinced that the Far Eastern Republic has the support of the great majority of the people in the region over which it holds sway and that the Verkhne-Udinsk Government would be able to restore order in Eastern Siberia if the intervention of the Japanese were brought to an end.

Will Urge Recognition.

For these reasons it is said that the mission will insist that China recognize the Far Eastern Republic and abolish all the restrictions on trade between China and Russia.

In regard to the Chinese Eastern Railway, the mission would deny all the claims of the Russo-Asiatic Bank over the railway. The mission is of the opinion that there should be convened at the earliest possible moment a conference of representatives of the Far Eastern Republic and the Moscow Soviet for the settling of the questions pertaining to the Chinese Eastern Railway.

CONSIDER PLAN TO FIGHT SEVEN-CENT
STREET CAR FARE

But Council Defers Action;
Charge City Was Too Greedy

WANT COUNCIL TO DEMAND CONCESSIONS

While agreeing that the B. C. Electric Railway Company "requires increased fares for the successful carrying on of their business," the civic Legislative Committee's report to the City Council on the street car problem, laid before the Council last night, recommends—as was forecasted in these columns—"that the city should contend before the Railway Board that the granting of increased fares must be conditional upon the city securing the concessions outlined in the City Council's instructions and pressed for before the representatives of the B. C. Electric Railway Company by your committee."

Whether the city will continue to fight for a six-cent lighting rate, a percentage of the company's gross earnings, extension of the Pandora Avenue line, and other minor concessions, as proposed by the Legislative Committee, was not decided by the Council last night. Action on the whole matter, in fact, was deferred so that each alderman could consider at leisure the committee's voluminous report which, it is intended, shall be used as part of the city's plea before the Railway Commission.

Though making no decision the Council battled for some time over the question of who was responsible for the present acute transportation situation. Charges that a special committee, dealing with the matter, failed to reach an advantageous settlement two years ago simply because it was attempting to secure too much from the company, were made by Alderman Andros and answered by Alderman Sargent. Some of the aldermen argued that the city had never been in a position to reach a settlement until this year, while Alderman Sargent alleged that the influence of the jitney vote had upset a possible agreement in the past.

Outlines Negotiations.

After outlining the early negotiations on the street car question the Legislative Committee's report states that, "on the 14th of February, 1919, Mr. A. T. Goward, manager of the Railway Company of Victoria, outlined in a letter addressed to the Council on that date the position of his Company, and pointed out the necessities for increased passenger fares on their system, and urged the then Council to pass a bylaw enabling the Railway Company to charge a six-cent fare, and to take immediate steps to procure legislation which would enable the city to prohibit the jitney traffic. In consideration of these additional privileges Mr. Goward committed his Company to a definite undertaking to grant certain concessions as follows:

"1. To carry children under five years of age free. 2. To issue school children's tickets, ten for twenty-five cents, with transfer privileges under the same conditions as are now in force in Vancouver. 3. To put into force a general lighting rate of six cents net per kilowatt hour, charging no meter rent, and subject to a monthly minimum of fifty cents as now in force in Vancouver. 4. To take over the maintenance of the roadway between the tracks, etc., as per Mr. Kidd's letter of the 25th of August, 1918. 5. To agree that the Company would not ask for the elimination of jitneys plying for hire along the Gore Road, Quadra Street and Haultain Street, as long as these jitneys did not directly compete with the Street Railway Company. 6. To embody the foregoing conditions in a good and sufficient agreement, the same to remain in force for one year, or until changed by the Public Utilities Commission."

The report goes on to outline the city's failure in 1919 to secure legislation allowing it to eliminate jitneys, but states, "since the passing of the required legislation in April of this year the Legislative Committee has had several conferences with Mr. Goward and Mr. A. D. King, the Company's solicitor, for the purpose of arriving at some common ground as a basis for an agreement."

"On or about the 14th of June, 1920, at one of the conferences referred to, Mr. Goward, submitted, on behalf of his Company, a tentative draft agreement the terms of which were agreeable to his company and a copy of which is attached to this report."

A Moderate Request.

"The terms proposed by the Railway Company according to the provisions of this draft agreement correspond, with some slight variations, with the offer made in Mr. Goward's letter of the 14th of February, 1919. At this meeting your Committee asked for the further concessions contained in the City Council's instructions to them when this Committee was appointed, consisting of the payment to the city by the Railway Company of a small bonus on gross earnings, which the agreement provided for the extension of the Pandora Avenue line to Oak Bay Avenue. In asking for the bonus it was suggested that no bonus whatever should be payable until after the Company's net earnings reached five per cent. per annum on the capital actually invested in the Street Railway Department of the Company's business, and regarding the Pandora Avenue extension, it was suggested by your committee that the agreement between the parties should not require the completion of the extension referred to until the expiration of two years from the date of agreement, and that the agreement should contain a provision for cancellation on six months' notice to be given by either side. This would have enabled the Railway Company to carry on business for a year and a half under the agreement, and if dissatisfied, to give six months' notice and have the agreement cancelled, thus relieving them from the necessity of doing any part of the work of construction on the Pandora Avenue extension.

"This conference came to an end with the understanding that your committee would hear from the Railway Company's representatives after their further consideration of the additional concessions proposed by the city, and your Committee was hopeful at that time that an agreement would be arranged at an early date."

Seven-Cent Fare.

"At the next interview, however, Mr. Goward stated that he was not sure that his Company could operate at a six-cent fare, and wanted further time to investigate."

"At another meeting held soon afterward Mr. Goward informed your Committee that his Company, after considering the whole matter, had decided that they could not operate on anything less than a seven-cent fare, and as the City had no authority to grant a fare in excess of six cents, the Company was preparing to apply to the Railway Board for the approval of charging a seven-cent fare."

"Nothing then was heard from the Railway Company until Mr. Goward's letter of July 16, 1920, addressed to His Worship the Mayor and the Board of Aldermen, was read before the Municipal Council stating the Company's intention to apply to the Board of Railway Commissioners of Canada for the right to charge a seven-cent fare in place of the five-cent fare now being charged. On July 26, 1920, a formal notification from Mr. Goward, dated July 24, 1920, and addressed to His Worship the Mayor and Council, gave notification that the Railway Company would on the 26th of the month mail to its agent at Ottawa instructions to apply to the Railway Board for leave to charge a seven-cent fare."

Would Ask Seven Cents Anyway.

"Subsequently a further conference took place, when a further effort was made to arrive at some common ground of agreement, but the change in the Railway Company's attitude seemed to indicate that the application for the right to charge a seven-cent fare was to be pressed before the Railway Board in any event. A further effort was made to agree upon some concessions which might be agreeable both to the city and the Railway Company, and at the close of this latter conference Mr. Goward agreed to consider the question further and to submit in writing what his Company would agree to in the event that a seven-cent fare were granted, and the jitneys eliminated. These concessions referred to are in the form of a letter dated August 11, 1920, written by Mr. Goward and addressed to the Chairman of your Committee."

The Committee's recommendations are briefly summed up in the last paragraph of the report as follows: "Doubtless the B. C. Electric Railway Company requires increased fares for the successful carrying on of their business, and the Railway Board will decide what the increased fare shall be. The recommendation of your Committee, under the circumstances, is that the City should contend before the Railway Board that the granting of increased fares must be conditional upon the City securing the concessions outlined in the City Council's instructions and pressed for before the representatives of the B. C. Electric Railway Company by your Committee."

"In Better Shape Now."

Moving that the Legislative Committee's report be tabled for a week, Alderman Sangster declared, "It's a pity the Council didn't accept the offer made by the company a long time ago. We would begin better shape now."

"I have no objection to the motion but I have to the statement that we didn't accept advantageous terms a long time ago," replied Alderman Sargent, who was chairman of the committee which conducted the first negotiations with the Company. "The offers of the Company were always contingent on legislation eliminating jitneys, and we had no authority to eliminate them until April of this year, though we worked strenuously to get the needed legislation."

"There should have been the opposition to the legislation that there was by some people," Alderman Sangster persisted.

Change of Circumstances.

"The report of the Legislation Committee reads as if the B. C. Electric didn't know its own mind from one month to another," complained Alderman Dewar. "The fact is that when the Company first proposed the six-cent fare the volume of business was far bigger than it is to-day. If the Company doesn't get some concessions in order that it may operate without losing money it will have to close down the street railway operations. I am sure that this would be a disaster for the city of Victoria. We would get nothing cheaper than a ten-cent rate from the jitneys and not the same accommodation by a long way. Not only would the city as a whole suffer from a shut-down but some 200 or 300 employees of the Company would be put out of their employment and probably would have to leave town. Among these men are many taxpayers."

"A Reasonable Agreement."

"The whole thing is this: we are going to make a reasonable agreement with the B. C. Electric," asserted Alderman Andros. "Here we have been trying to get a percentage of the Company's profits, which is absurd and have been making other demands. We could have got reasonable terms a year ago, but no, we wanted the big end of the stick. The Company, I may say would have been crazy to have allowed us a percentage of its profits. They have to make money—and they haven't been making money for the last ten years or so. We would have made arrangements in the past far more reasonable than any we will make again."

Alderman Patrick, chairman of the Legislation Committee, while not wishing to debate the matter until the aldermen had had an opportunity to discuss the committee's report, explained the question of the city securing a percentage of the Company's profits and the proposed extension of the Pandora Avenue line had not been snags in the street car negotiations. "The committee," he said, "had met representatives of the Company whenever the latter desired and at their convenience. No obstacles whatever have been out in the way of the consummation of a satisfactory agreement."

Would Not Have Mattered.

Alderman Johns, another member of the committee pointed out that all proposed agreements could be terminated with six months' notice. If the city, therefore, had allowed a six-cent fare when the negotiations commenced there was no reason to believe that the Company would have been satisfied with it now. "The city would in any case be up against the same trouble that it faced to-day.

Alderman Dewar affirmed that the Company would be foolish in the extreme to agree to build the Pandora line even in two years, as the project would not be profitable.

Substantial Agreement.

"There was no insistence on our part that the Pandora line should be built," answered Alderman Patrick. "We were led to believe, however, that the Pandora line proposal and the percentage of profits plan would receive favorable consideration by the Company. All other points were settled. Then the Company threw over the whole proposition."

"I must repeat, interjected Alderman Sargent, 'that it has never been possible for this Council to make any arrangement with the Company in the last two years. All arrangements were dependent upon the elimination of jitneys—a task we could not undertake until last April. For an alderman to say that this Council made a batch of the whole thing—well, either he doesn't know what he is talking about, or he wants to misrepresent the matter to the public.'"

"Influenced by Jitneyman."

"There was a great deal of opposition to the elimination of jitneys on the part of the aldermen in 1918, that was the whole trouble," Alderman Sangster insisted. "If the Council had been a unit on the matter we would have got the necessary legislation. The Council were influenced by the band of jitneyman who used to come here every night!"

"I repeat they did make a batch of it," Alderman Andros remarked. "Alderman Sargent's guilty conscience has made him make those statements. The Council made a batch of it—it will make many more batches before it is through. The aldermen are only human, though they don't think so. It's all right to pull the wool over our eyes about us not being able to eliminate jitneys until April but the fact is that we could have settled the question two years ago. I was on the committee conducting the negotiations with the Company when that committee would have settled in one week. I could have settled it in five minutes."

"Yes, he could," agreed Alderman Sargent. "He could—by giving away everything the city had."

"If we had carried out at that time the proposal that Alderman Andros is making we should have given the city away," agreed Alderman Johns. "Finally Alderman Sangster's motion that consideration of the matter be deferred one week was carried without opposition."

FAIL TO KILL

CURFEW PLAN

Project Will Be Revived Following Vain Effort To Squash It

Opponents attempted at the City Council meeting last night to make an end of the whole scheme to enforce the Curfew Bylaw. They failed, however, and, as a result the reurrection of the project at the next meeting of the Council appears probable. For some weeks now the Council has been waiting for the Legislative Committee to report on the cost of installing an electric curfew whistle on the electric light plant. When the matter came up for consideration last night under the heading of unfinished business Alderman Dinsdale, opponent of the curfew scheme, expressed a desire to have a show-down on the question. "We're all here," he said, "let us decide this thing one way or the other."

Alderman Todd agreed and moved that all documents on the subject be filed away, thus automatically killing the proposal.

"In other words, you ask a committee to report and then refuse to hear its report?" queried Alderman Patrick. "We have had trouble in framing a report on this matter. I must admit, and have run against certain snags. We hope, however, to be ready to report soon. As a matter of fact, if you do file all correspondence on the matter we could make a report anyway."

"I lay it on the table for a week until the committee can report," suggested Alderman Sargent. "That's the logical thing to do."

"Yes, but it's not always the logical thing to do!" remarked the Mayor. When the question came to a vote, the Mayor and Alderman Todd, Andros, Sangster and Dinsdale favored filing the curfew plan. They, however, were defeated by one vote, and the matter was tabled until the next meeting.
